NO CURE NO PAY.

RATS and MICE

EFFECTUALLY DESTROYED BY

HUGH DELACE,

WORCESTER.

THIS Remedy which never failed where a ſufficient quantity has been uſed, is in Pills about the ſize of a Nut, and one is ſufficient to deſtroy the largeſt Rat, and broken in pieces will kill ſix Mice; they will eat the Pills, in preference to all kind of Food, and never ceaſe eating while one exiſts, yet no Cat will touch them unleſs ſtarved with hunger, and as the Vermin neither eat, drink or puke after taking the Pills, they may be laid with ſafety in Dairies Granaries, Larders, &c. nor is there the leaſt danger in handling them,—The Pills may be had ready packed up with Printed Directions, 24 Pills 1s. 60 ditto 2s. 6d. 120 do. 5s. and ſo in proportion for any quantity, of Mr. Tymbs, Printer, Worceſter, Mr. Agg, Eveſham, Mr. Gower, Kidderminſter, Mr. Cox, Tewkeſbury, Mr. Raikes, Gloceſter, Mr. Walker, Hereford, Mr. Gilbert Scott, Druggiſt, Ledbury, Mr. Gitton, Bridgnorth, Mr. Griffiths, Biſhop's Caſtle, Mr. Griffiths, Ludlow, Mr. Pearſon, Birmingham, and of all Newſmen.

 The Proprietor will attend any Perſon much infeſted, and engage in a few nights to clear any place whatever; taking one halfpenny for every one of his Pills that is uſed, and Payment for Attendance excluſive.

WORCESTER: PRINTED BY J. TYMBS.

Trade Cards